

Meredith B. Spelman

Associate

contact

28 Liberty Street
New York, New York 10005
D / 212-238-8657
spelman@clm.com

My varied background in litigation allows me to view cases and disputes from a unique perspective. I approach each matter with the client's individual needs in mind in order to provide comprehensive representation to accomplish their goals.

Litigation attorney Meredith Spelman represents U.S. clients in a variety of complex litigation matters, including commercial, securities, and IP litigation. She contributes her broad base of experience to a team of seasoned litigators who work tirelessly for their clients' best interests. Adept at communication, Meredith prides herself on being easy to work with while helping clients achieve their long-term goals.

Prior to her legal career, Meredith worked as a litigation consultant preparing damages reports for litigation and arbitration proceedings.

Outside the Office

I enjoy watching sports, especially the NY Giants and Villanova basketball. I play in a bocce league and like to travel.

Practices

Litigation and Disputes
Trade Secrets and Restrictive Covenants
Intellectual Property

Admissions

Bar Admissions
New Jersey

New York

Court Admissions

U.S. District Courts, Southern and Eastern Districts of New York

Education

Fordham University School of Law (JD, 2019)

- Fordham Law Moot Court, Editorial Board Member
- Fordham Journal of Corporate and Financial Law, Notes and Articles Editor
- Archibald M. Murray Public Service Award Recipient

Villanova University (BA in Finance and Economics, 2012)